To those I love
I leave with you the following wishes.
I realize that circumstances may not permit for all or any of my desires to be carried out.
My request is that you will honor these wishes, as much as possible, as you remember me.
I trust that the following will be a source of reassurance and comfort in the days ahead.
It is my desire that this will also help to avoid any confusion or uncertainty and unnecessary expense.
Love,
Signed
Date

SPECIAL NOTES AND WISHES

Questions Sometimes Asked

Is embalming required?

The State of Arizona does not require embalming for burial or cremation. It is the policy of Avenidas Funeral Chapel to require embalming if a viewing/visitation with open casket is requested.

Which is "right" - burial or cremation?

Choosing burial or cremation is a very personal decision. There is no "right" or "wrong".

How much should we spend on funeral expenses?

Choose only those services that you want and are willing to pay for. Pay close attention to your budget, and make it known of your wishes for your family to stick to this budget.

Do we have to view the body?

No. Viewing the body, though, can help to give closure and help family and friends to express their grief.

Do we need to have a ceremony?

A ceremony helps to give closure. For many it provides an opportunity for family and friends to gather together to express their grief and sadness. It also can be a time to celebrate and honor the memories and life of their loved one.

Should children attend the service?

Yes, if they and their parents would like them to. Children of any age need closure also.

Should clergy or musicians receive payment or a gift?

An honorarium is normally appropriate and can be arranged through your funeral director.

What should we do with the cremated remains?

These can be places in an urn to be buried, stored in a vault, kept at home, or scattered. (Check with your funeral director about any legal restrictions.)

What about whole-body donation for medical research?

These arrangements must be made in advance with a medical school. (Check with your funeral director.)

Organ donation?

This should be discussed in advance with your hospital or medical care provider in advance.

When will I stop hurting?

It is never easy to let go, either of the one we love or of the grief we feel as a result of the loss. The funeral director and staff will be able to point you to many valuable resources.

This is probably a really silly question...

There are no silly questions. Call your funeral director at any time with any question or concer you may have!
